

OCCUR and The San Francisco Foundation Faiths Program
Presents: A Model Built on Faith and Community

Faiths, Nonprofits and the Law:
What You Must Know Now

Tuesday September 29, 2015

Few subjects are as important to the survival of faiths and other nonprofits as understanding the laws that apply to your organization. Seasoned Attorneys

-William Taylor, Esq., The Business Lawyers

-Asha Wilkerson, Esq., The Wilkerson Law Office

cover a wide range of legal topics necessary to the daily function and survival of the over time. This session designed for faith-based and other nonprofit organization leaders will touch on a wide range of key legal topics such as:

- Employment and other laws that apply to faiths/nonprofit volunteers
- Need for clear and effective bylaws – how your bylaws dictate your activities
- When you need MOU's, contracts and other written agreements with community partners
- How key policies and procedures can provide legal protections for your organization
- The basics of the 501 (c) (3) nonprofit status
- Essential steps to protecting the nonprofit status
- Board's legal role in protecting/advancing the organization
