PART A - INTRODUCTION

1. Background

- I. The Global Jamaica Diaspora Council hereinafter referred to as “GJDC” is the successor to the Jamaica Diaspora Advisory Board. Its conception arose out of the recognition that Jamaica needs to strengthen its Diaspora engagement mechanism and align it to the newly crafted goals, pillars and focus areas outlined in the [draft] National Diaspora Policy.
- II. The GJDC will be the major tool of the Diaspora engagement process, as the principal of the organ of the National Diaspora Policy with primary responsibility for modalities to realise the goals of the Policy with a view to significantly contribute to national development through productive, mutual, and sustainable Diaspora engagement.
- III. It will lead the repurposing of the Diaspora Foundation and the Diaspora Institution and other Diaspora engagement mechanisms. It is important to note that the GJDC is not an arm of the Government of Jamaica. Consequently, the views expressed by Council members do not represent the views of the (GOJ).

2. Membership of the GJDC

- I. The GJDC will comprise 28 members. Fourteen (14) will be elected from across the Diaspora communities in the United Kingdom, Canada and the United States of America.
 - a. In the United Kingdom, one member from each of the North and South regions and one Youth Council Member between the ages 18-35 from each of the North and South regions.
 - b. In Canada, two members from any province and two Youth Council Members from any province between the ages 18-35.
 - c. In the United States of America, one member from each of the West/Mid-West, North-East and Southern regions and one Youth Council Member from each of the West/Mid-West, North-East and Southern regions between the ages 18-35.

- II. The remaining 13 members will be appointed from the Diaspora by the Minister with responsibility for Diaspora Affairs in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Foreign Trade.
- III. There will be three categories of appointments. Appointments according to regions, appointments according to sectors and a discretionary appointment.
 - a. Appointments according to Regions
 - i. 6 Individuals may be selected for appointment as regional representatives from the following regions: Africa, Asia and the Pacific, the Middle East, the Caribbean, Latin America and Europe (excluding the United Kingdom).
 - ii. In an effort to promote greater inclusiveness globally, the Minister may rotate appointments among different countries within each region.
 - iii. The Minister may appoint more than one member from a region when there is no representative from another region.
 - b. Appointment according to Sector
 - i. 7 individuals may be selected for appointment as sector representatives who have expertise in one or more of the following categories: Education; Health; Arts, Sports and Culture; Citizen Security; Development Expertise; Faith-based Community and Commerce.
 - ii. Without prejudice to section 2(III) (b) (i), the composition of sector representatives will correspond to the particular strategic focus of the Diaspora at a particular point in time.
 - c. Discretionary Appointment

The Minister may appoint 1 individual who is not selected on the bases provided in (a) or (b) above. Such individual should however possess experience in an area of critical importance to the work of the Council.

- IV. All members of the GJDC must be persons of good repute and in good standing in their communities and professional life. All members must possess the requisite skills, experience and influence in one or more of the 10 thematic focus areas outlined in the [draft] National Diaspora Policy. These areas include the following:
- a. Socio-economic engagement and involvement;
 - b. Human exchanges, transfers and philanthropic initiatives;
 - c. Integration and Reintegration;
 - d. Safety and security;
 - e. Governance;
